Mail Men to Convene at Albany Tomorrow

OSWEGO TO BECOME A CITY

Oregon News Items of Interest—Roses Galore For The Great Festival—Ashland Getting in Her Own Shade.

PORTLAND, May 27.—The Oregon Rural Letter Carriers' Association will hold their convention at Albany Friday, the 29th. Secretary-Treasurer John H. Goins of the Association, is a resident of Albany, and in connection with Bury I. Daseot, secretary of the Albany Commercial Club, is arranging an intensely interesting program. The motto and banner of the Rural Letter Carriers is "Stand for better roads and a greater Oregon." President John H. Scott of the Oregon Roads Association, President Campbell of the University of Oregon, and other distinguished speakers will be present.

Oswego, one of the oldest and best-known of Portland's suburban towns, is determined to organize, incorporate and give other live Oregon communities proof that an old town beats them all growing when she gets started good and proper.

Your correspondent has inside information that there will be all kinds of roses for the great festival which begins June 1st and lasts until the 6th, with a program full of interest from the opening moment until the closing hour, with low rates from every point in Oregon.

All Oregon seems to have been aroused and enthused over the new home of the Portland Commercial Club. At one luncheon last week there were representatives from fifteen different towns and cities of the State. The Convention Hall on the sixth floor, in which all Oregon's organized bodies will be welcome, is a central feature. Every picture hung upon its walls is an Oregon scene, and in this room during the next few years will be enacted much of interest and moment to every man, woman and child of Oregon.

Ashland is especially prosperous and happy. A line of shade trees to the number of four hundred have been planted on either side of the boulevard leading from the city to the Normal School, and new residences are encroaching upon surrounding orchards.

Arrangements are being perfected by the Executive Committee of the Portland Commercial Club to secure the corner, ground floor room in the new Commercial Club Building for an exhibit of Oregon products and as headquarters for the circulation of Oregon advertising matters. This room is practically a large glass case—the principal electric cars between the business section and the Union Depot pass constantly. Portland business men are willing to pay the expenses, but they want to be first assured of a permanent exhibit worthy of Oregon, and the co-operation of the different sections of the State is all that is necessary to make the undertaking a success.

TO AVOID ACCIDENTS ORGANIZING HEIRS

Balloon Pilots Must Obtain Government Approval

In Effort to Secure Share of $90,000,000 Estate

SAYS CAPT. THOS. BALDWIN

PROPERTY IS IN WILMINGTON

Such Escapades Seriously Affect Work of Real Aeronauts—Aero Club of America Should Voice Its Strong Disapproval in Matter.

Left by Christopher Springer Who Died at Wilmington in 1780—Estate Was Tied up by Brother by Giving 99-Year Lease.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Speaking of accidents to balloons and flying machines, Capt. Thos. S. Baldwin, under contract to build two dirigible balloons for the United States government, said at the Aero Club last night that measures had been taken in this country similar to those in force in France and Germany prohibiting balloon ascensions in all cases where the pilot and the balloon have not first obtained government approval. A. C. Trica, director of the International School of Aeronautics, said:

"It is criminal to permit a man who knows nothing about mechanical construction of the piloting of balloons to endanger to the lives of persons, the Aero Club of America should voice its strong disapproval in the matter. Such escapades seriously affect the work of real aeronauts are trying to do."

William R. Kimball said there had been no casualties in this country except to persons not connected with organization.

"In three years the aero clubs of the United States have had no accidents due to the defective apparatus," he added.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willamantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

LOS ANGELES, May 27.—In an effort to secure a share of a $90,000,000 estate declared to be awaiting claimants at Wilmington, Del., Charles D. Tufford of this city, is organizing the heirs of Christopher Springer, who died at Wilmington in 1780, into a society.

The property, said to comprise a large portion of the city of Wilmington, as well as considerable valuable farming lands in both Delaware and Pennsylvania, was left by Springer, who died without issue. An only brother, John having espoused the cause of the colonies during the Revolution, Christopher, a staunch Tory, tied up his estate that it might not fall into his relatives hands. He did this by giving a 99 year lease to the Swedish Church at Wilmington. The lease expired in 1880, and since then the title to the land has been in abeyance.

As far as can be learned, between 50 and 100 have claims but many look upon the tale of the estate as merely a family tradition. However the eastern heirs have formed a corporation to take steps to recover the property and are seeking to include the local relatives. It is not unlikely they will join the corporation formed for the prosecuting of the cause.

Two of the local heirs will be delegated to go to Wilmington to represent the westerners. They will take an attorney with them and will carry the matter into the courts.

As far as known the western heirs are Mrs. Eliza E. Springer Tufford, Chas. D. Tufford W. C. Lockwood and H. C. Lockwood, all of this city; E. A. Lockwood of Holywood; Mrs. Hume Flood of Pomona; G. F. Lockwood, Ontario; Mrs Richard Brown of San Francisco; Dr. M. M. Lockwood of Coluse; Mrs A. McLean and Mrs. Esther Lockwood of Seattle.
